

Kamara

Stevererson

Kamara is a junior here who plays on both the varsity softball and varsity basketball teams. Outside of school, she enjoys listening to music and spending time with her friends and family. Her favorite subject is English, and though she doesn't know where she would like to go after Northview, she knows she wants to be a nurse.