

Austin Vander Weg

Austin is a Northview senior who is president of National Honor Society and enjoys volunteering and helping out in the community. He has played baseball for all of high school. He works with kids in the summer teaching a kids club, pre-teen club and swim lessons. Aside from school he likes spending time with friends and family.