

Anna is a Northview senior who has gone here since freshman year. She is in NHS and SADD. In her years here, she has run track and played the flute in marching band and wind ensemble. Outside of school she has a job and loves being with others. After Northview, she hopes to attend Liberty University.